
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MICHAEL E. BOWMAN,

Defendant.

Case No. 10-CR-00640

STIPULATED MOTION FOR INSTALLMENT PAYMENT ORDER

Plaintiff United States of America, and Defendant Michael E. Bowman (hereafter “Mr. Bowman”), hereby stipulate and move this Court to enter an installment payment order for the payment of restitution, pursuant to its authority under § 3204 of the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act (28 U.S.C. § 3204) and the following stipulation of the parties, and consistent with the following terms:

1. Judgment was entered on October 18, 2013 in the total sum of $35,383.70 in favor of the United States and against Mr. Bowman.
2. Mr. Bowman has agreed to pay, and the United States has agreed to accept monthly installment payments from Mr. Bowman in the amount of $250.00 commencing on May 15, 2023, and continuing thereafter on the 15th day of each month. At the end of 12 months and yearly thereafter, Mr. Bowman shall submit a current financial statement to the United States Attorney’s Office. The United States may evaluate and seek to modify this installment payment order based upon the documented financial status of Mr. Bowman.
3. Mr. Bowman agrees to submit all financial documentation in a timely manner and to notify the United States Attorney’s Office within 5 days of any of the following events:

- a. Any change of address;
- b. Any change in employment; and
- c. Any other significant change in Mr. Bowman's economic circumstances, including but not limited to:
 - i. Any increase in monthly earnings of 20% or more, and/or
 - ii. Receipt of any lump-sum payment (such as gifts, lottery winnings, inheritances etc.) totaling $3,000 or more.

4. Mr. Bowman acknowledges and agrees that immediately upon notice of a change in his economic circumstances the United States may adjust this payment schedule as appropriate based upon Mr. Bowman's changed economic circumstances and ask Mr. Bowman to sign a new stipulated motion for installment payment order. Mr. Bowman further understands and agrees that if he does not accept the new proposed payment schedule, the United States may move the Court to adjust the payment schedule pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), and that Mr. Bowman will have an opportunity to respond and object to the United States' motion before the Court enters its ruling. Mr. Bowman acknowledges that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(e), "The burden of demonstrating the financial resources of the defendant and the financial needs of the defendant's dependents, shall be on the defendant."

5. Mr. Bowman agrees that the United States shall refrain from submitting his debt in this case to the U.S. Department of Treasury for inclusion in the Treasury Offset Program, insofar as he maintains this payment schedule. Mr. Bowman understands that in the event that payments are not submitted in accordance with this agreement, his debt may be submitted for inclusion in the Treasury Offset Program.

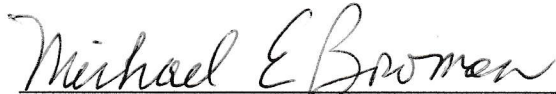

6. In consideration of the mutual promises made in this Stipulation, the United States agrees to refrain from execution on the judgment so long as Mr. Bowman complies strictly with the agreements set forth in this Stipulation. Mr. Bowman hereby consents that in the event he fails to comply strictly with the agreement set forth in paragraphs 2 through 4 above, the United States may move the Court ex parte for a writ of execution, a writ of garnishment, or any other appropriate order deemed necessary for the purpose of satisfying the judgment in full or in part.

7. Under 18 U.S.C. § 3613, the liability to pay restitution shall terminate on the date that is the later of 20 years from the entry of judgment or 20 years after the release from imprisonment of the person ordered to pay restitution, and accordingly any payment plan entered by this Court will not be enforceable after such date.

8. Based upon this stipulation, and pursuant to its authority under § 3204 of the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act (28 U.S.C. § 3204), the Court may enter an installment payment order consistent with the foregoing terms. The installment payment order will amend any previously ordered restitution payment schedule in this case as to Mr. Bowman.
