We are proposing changes to your 2024 Form 1040 tax return.

Proposed amount due: $7,384

We received information from third parties, such as employers, financial institutions, and others, that doesn't match the information you reported on your tax return. The more:

- Proposed a change to an earlier payment and credit (such as before a credit is earned), unearned income credit, etc.) that are originally entered.
- Provides you with an opportunity to agree or disagree with the proposed changes. If our information is correct, you will owe $7,384 (including interest), which you need to pay by April 15, 2024.

Summary of proposed changes

Tax you owe	$6,175
Payments	$400
Amount to be paid (net of payments)	$6,575
Interest	$809
Proposed amount due by April 15, 2024	$7,384

Example: This is not a bill. The tax we've charged the proposed amount due.

What you need to do immediately

If you need more time to respond to the notice, contact us at 1-800-829-1040. Interest will continue to accrue during the period of the extension if the notice is correct.

Review the notice, and compare our changes to the information on your 2024 tax return.

If you agree with the proposed changes

- Complete, sign, and date the Response form on Page 7 (see required "both spouses" signatures if you filed married filing jointly), and mail it to us along with your payment of $7,384 to be received by April 15, 2024.
- Do not file an amended return (Form 1040X) if you fully agree with our changes. We'll make the correction when we receive your signed response.

If you don't agree with the proposed changes

- Complete the Response form on Page 7, and send it to us along with a signed statement explaining your disagreement and include any documentation that supports your claim so we receive it by April 15, 2024.
- If you have allowable costs or expenses related to the unreported income that will change our proposal, it may benefit you to include the applicable form or schedule with your response.

We are proposing changes to your 2022 Form 1040 tax return.
Proposed amount due: $7,384

We received information from third parties, such as employers or financial institutions, that doesn't match the information you reported on your tax return. This notice:

- Proposes a change to tax credits, payments, and credits such as federal income tax withheld, earned income credit, etc. that you originally reported.
 - Provides you with an opportunity to agree or disagree with the proposed changes.
- If our information is correct, you will owe $7,384. Outstanding interest, which you need to pay by April 15, 2024.

Summary of proposed changes

Tax you owe	$6,190
Payments	$-800
Substance in order to meet penalty	$5,144
Interest	$1,540
Proposed amount due by April 15, 2024	$7,384

Reminder: This is not a bill. We haven't charged the proposed amount due.

What you need to do immediately

If you need more time to respond to this notice, contact us at 1-800-829-4039. Interest will continue to accrue during this period if the information in this notice is correct.

Review this notice, and compare our changes to the information on your 2022 tax return.

If you agree with the proposed changes:

- Complete, sign, and date the Response form on Page 7. Two require both spouses' signatures if you filed married filing jointly, and mail it to us along with your payment of $7,384 to get receipt by April 15, 2024.
- Do not file an amended return (Form 1040X) if you fully agree with our changes. We'll make the correction when we receive your signed response.

If you don't agree with the proposed changes:

- Complete the Response form on Page 7, and send it to us along with a signed statement explaining your disagreement and include any documentation that supports your claim so we receive it by April 15, 2024.
- If you have allowable deductions or expenses related to the unreported income that will change our proposal, it may benefit you to include the applicable form or schedule with our request.
