12/31/2017	SRP	$695.00	$149.08	$0.00	$844.08

- Lines marked with SRP are for the shared responsibility payment. These amounts are not subject to a Notice of Federal Tax Lien filing, a levy, or the failure to pay penalty. The removal or reduction of penalty charges, as discussed below, does not apply to the SRP.
- Your payment must be received on or before October 23, 2024, to avoid additional interest charges and applicable penalties. Payments made in the last 21 days may not be reflected above.
- When a return is filed with a balance due, interest and applicable penalties may be added to the total amount owed. This reflects your balance in the Automated Collection System. You may have additional debt not reflected in this notice.

IRS Help

If you can't find what you need online or need assistance, you can call the IRS at 833-282-7220. Find tax forms or publications by visiting irs.gov/forms.

If you are facing financial or economic hardship, the following options may be available to you:

Temporarily delay collection

If you can't pay due to financial hardship, the IRS may temporarily delay collection until your situation improves. Visit irs.gov/delay to learn more. If you call, have your financial information (assets, monthly income and expenses) available.

Settle your tax debt at a reduced amount

An Offer in Compromise could allow you to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount you owe. You can use our online pre-qualifier tool at irs.gov/offers to see if you qualify and learn more.

Employer Rights and Sources for AssistanceInterest and penalties

We're required by law to charge interest when you don't pay your balance on time. Interest accumulates on principal, penalties, and interest. Interest cannot be reduced due to reasonable cause. Interest accumulates daily; the longer you wait to pay, the more interest gets added to your account. Visit irs.gov/interest for more information.

We're also required by law to charge applicable penalties. However, in select situations, we may be able to reduce penalties. Visit irs.gov/penalties for more information.

If you enter an installment agreement, interest and applicable penalties will continue to accrue on the remaining balance during the life of the agreement. Each payment will reduce the amount of additional penalties and interest.

⚠ Please act on your balance of $25,917.93

- We are trying to collect unpaid balances from you for the tax periods shown on the next page.
- By working with the IRS now, you can avoid enforcement action, which may include seizing assets or wages.
- Choosing one of the options below may stop enforcement action on your account:

Pay your balance over time

Set up a streamlined installment agreement with a monthly payment as low as:

$359.97

(over approximately 72 months)

- Interest and applicable penalties will continue to accrue on your balance over the life of the agreement. See next page for details.
- Larger monthly payments decrease the time until you pay off your balance, reducing interest and applicable penalty charges.
- You must stay current with your payments and future filings to avoid enforcement action.
- Find out about other options for paying your balance over time at irs.gov/payments.

Scan here to set up an online payment agreement

Pay your balance in full

Make a one-time payment of:

$25,917.93

- Paying your balance in full, if you can afford it, is your best option because:
 - It stops all enforcement action on your account
 - Interest and applicable penalties stop accruing
- If you can't pay your full balance, pay what you can to avoid as much penalties and interest as possible.

Scan here to find information to direct-pay and avoid waiting on the phone by visiting irs.gov/it19. If you can't find what you need online, see "IRS Help" on page 2 for more information.
