Dear Taxpayer:

We received your Form 8857, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief, but couldn't process it because it didn't contain a valid signature. We can't accept an electronic, digitally-stamped, or power of attorney signature without proper authorization.

We're returning your original form. Please sign with a valid signature and return the form to us if you want us to consider your request.

We can also consider relief for tax years <252022.> Please submit another Form 8857, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief, if you want to request relief for the additional years.

The address you entered on Form 8857, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief, is different from the most recent address we have on record. To change your address, you must complete and return Form 8822, Change of Address, to the service center where you filed your return. If you don't submit Form 8822, you may not receive important correspondence mailed to your address of record.

Please review Publication 971, Innocent Spouse Relief, for more information about filing an innocent spouse claim. You can get this or any other form or publication mentioned in this letter by visiting our website at www.irs.gov/forms-pubs or by calling 800-TAX-FORM (800-829-3676).

If you have questions, you can call the person listed at the top of this letter between 7:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. ET.

If you prefer, you can write to the address at the top of the first page of this letter.
