Consequences If You Don't Pay Immediately

- We may levy your income and bank accounts, as well as seize your property or your rights to property if you fail to comply. Property includes wages and other income, bank accounts, business assets, personal assets (including your car and home), Social Security benefits, Alaska Permanent Fund dividends or state tax refunds.
- We can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien, notifying your creditors we have a claim (lien) against all your property.
- The U.S. Department of State may revoke your passport or decline to issue or renew a passport if you have seriously delinquent tax debt totaling more than $62,000. For more information, visit irs.gov/passports.

Other Options

If you don't wish to pay directly online from your bank account, you may...

1. Go to irs.gov/payments or scan the QR code on page 1
2. Select "Pay Your Taxes by Debit or Credit"
3. Select an IRS-cleared payment processor
4. Pay through the payment processor's website

Pay by check or money order

1. Make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury"
2. Write your taxpayer ID number (XXX-XX-1363) on your payment
3. Mail your check or money order with the payment stub

Pay your balance over time

2. Alternative options for those with financial hardships, including offer in compromise and temporary delay of collection, visit irs.gov/payments

When you pay by check, you authorize us to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

Your payment must be received within 21 calendar days of the date of this notice (10 business days if the amount you owe is $100,000 or more) to avoid additional penalty and interest charges.

Notice of Intent to levy

This notice is your Notice of Intent to Levy (Internal Revenue Code Section 6331 (d)). If we don't receive the amount due within 30 days from the date of this notice, we can levy your state tax refund. We may also serve a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy or a Federal Contractor Levy, as explained in the enclosed Publication 594, IRS Collection Process. In most other situations, before we levy on your property or rights to property, we'll send you a notice that gives you the opportunity to request a Collection Due Process hearing, unless you have already received one.

If you have not paid the debt already, a federal tax lien has arisen as a claim against all your property. If you don't pay the amount due immediately or make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) publicly establishing our priority with your creditors or we may levy (subject to any applicable Collection Due Process rights). If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property.

If you don't agree with our intent to levy or file a NFTL, you have the right to request an appeal under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP) before collection action takes place. If you want to file an appeal, call 833-678-7020 or send us a Collection Appeals Request (Form 9423). Call 833-678-7020 if you have any questions. Note: The CAP is different from the Collection Due Process (CDP) program. CAP addresses appeals under Notification of Intent to Levy in Internal Revenue Code Section 6331(d) when a Section 6330 hearing is not offered. For additional information, visit irs.gov/compliance/appeals.
