Effective January 1, 2013

FDIC Insurance

On January 1, 2013, section 343 of the Dodd-Frank Act is scheduled to expire. Included in the expiration, is the FDIC's guarantee of unlimited FDIC insurance for noninterest bearing transaction account balances. Thus beginning January 1 2013, all transaction (checking) accounts are insured up to the standard maximum deposit insurance amount, which is $250,000. Also, the notice requirement for noninterest-bearing transaction accounts that convert to interest-bearing accounts does not apply to checking accounts modified after December 31, 2012.

Should the Federal government change this expiration date or make any FDIC insurance coverage limit changes, BB&T relationship managers and client service teams will be made aware of the changes so that we may assist you if you have questions.

Is Your Homeowner's Insurance Sufficient?

Your dog, Fido, is the nicest around. But he could still cause a significant claim against your homeowner's policy.

Imagine Fido's playing fetch. He runs to get the ball--and accidentally knocks down the neighbor, putting her in the hospital. It's a costly claim that may not be covered by your homeowner's insurance.

Ensure your homeowner's insurance is sufficient for all risks, even those you may not have considered. Talk to a BB&T Insurance Services agent today at 800-422-8448 or visit BBT.com/homeowners.

NOTICE OF CHANGES IN TEMPORARY FDIC INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR TRANSACTION ACCOUNTS

All funds in a "noninterest-bearing transaction account" are insured in full by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation from December 31, 2010, through December 31, 2012. This temporary unlimited coverage is in addition to, and separate from, the coverage of at least $250,000 available to depositors under the FDIC's general deposit insurance rules.

The term "noninterest-bearing transaction account" includes a traditional checking account or demand deposit account on which the insured depository institution pays no interest. It also includes Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts ("IOLTAs"). It does not include other accounts, such as traditional checking or demand deposit accounts that may earn interest, NOW accounts, and money-market deposit accounts.

For more information about temporary FDIC insurance coverage of transaction accounts, visit ww.fdic.gov.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR PERSONAL CHECKING ACCOUNT

Effective April 2, 2012, BB&T's fee for check photocopies associated with research, viewed or printed, will be $5 per copy. Clients who have Check Safekeeping or EasyImage statements receive their first three copies per statement cycle at no charge.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR PERSONAL CHECKING ACCOUNT

Effective April 2, 2012, BB&T's Negative Account Balance fee is changing from $33 to $35. This fee is assessed to a checking or savings account on the seventh calendar day that the account is overdrawn. To avoid this fee, promptly transfer funds or make a deposit to your account that brings your balance positive before the seventh calendar day from the date you overdraw your account.

One of the easiest ways to avoid excessive account fees is to closely monitor your account and keep a register of your transactions. BB&T offers a variety of tools to help you monitor your account activity, including:

- BB&T OnLine(R) Banking - view your balances and account activity and transfer funds between accounts from any computer with internet access
- BB&T Mobile Banking - monitor your spending, view transactions and transfer funds using your mobile phone's browser or our convenient apps for iPhone, Blackberry and Droid
- BB&T Alerts - set balance and activity alerts that let you know when your balance drops below a certain level, and when you need to transfer money to cover expenses
- BB&T Phone24 - call 800-226-5228 to check your account balance, transfer funds and review transaction history
