What you need to know— continued

Denial or revocation of United States Passport

On December 4, 2015, as part of the Fixing America’s Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Congress enacted Section 7345 of the Internal Revenue Code, which requires the Internal Revenue Service to notify the State Department of taxpayers certified as owing seriously delinquent tax debt. The FAST Act generally prohibits the State Department from issuing or renewing a passport to a taxpayer with seriously delinquent tax debt. Seriously delinquent tax debt means an unpaid, legally enforceable federal tax debt of an individual totaling more than $62,000 that has been assessed and for which a Notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed and all administrative remedies under IRC Section 6320 have lapsed or been exhausted or a levy has been issued. If you are individually liable for tax debt (including penalties and interest) totaling more than $62,000 and you do not pay the amount you owe or make alternate arrangements to pay, we may notify the State Department that your tax debt is seriously delinquent. The State Department generally will not issue or renew a passport to you after we make this notification. If you currently have a valid passport, the State Department may revoke your passport or limit your ability to travel outside the United States. Additional information on passport certification is available at irs.gov/passports.

Payment options

Pay online, by phone, or with a mobile device. Visit IRS.gov/payments or the IRS2Go mobile app for all IRS payment options.

If you plan to mail a payment, consider the electronic options at IRS.gov/payments first. It’s free to pay from a bank account (Direct Pay) or the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). You can also schedule payments and receive email notifications.

If you pay by check, money order, or cashier’s check, make sure it’s payable to the U.S. Treasury.

Can’t pay it all now?

- Consider an offer in compromise at IRS.gov/OIC
- Request a temporary collection delay at IRS.gov/tempcollectiondelay

To view the amount you owe and your payment history, visit IRS.gov/account.

If we don’t hear from you

Because you didn’t meet the terms of the agreement, we’ll terminate your installment agreement 30 days from the date of this notice if you don’t take appropriate action immediately. Based on the tax lien that has arisen as a claim against all of your property, we may also file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) on your property at any time, if we haven’t already done so. You have a right to appeal any proposed filing of the NFTL under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP).

If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. While NFTLs no longer appear on credit reports, they may still affect your ability to get credit if a potential creditor uses other resources, such as public records, to discover the NFTL.

In addition, as explained above, we have the right to levy (seize) your property if you don’t pay your tax debt.

Penalties

We are required by law to charge applicable penalties. However, in select situations, we may be able to remove or reduce penalties. Visit irs.gov/penalties to learn more.

Failure to pay

(Internal Revenue Code Section 6651)

We assess a penalty for each month or part of a month you don't pay the tax you owe by the due date and afterward, up to 25% of the tax shown on the return.

Note: The penalty amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total Failure to Pay penalty charges.

| Date to which penalty accrued | Number of months (full or partial) to which the penalty applies | Unpaid tax amount | Penalty rate | Penalty amount |
|-------------------------------|---|-------------------|--------------|-----------------|
| 12/17/2021 | 7 | 9,019.00 | 0.5% | 315.66 |

| Total Failure to Pay | | | | $869.40 |

Interest

(Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

We are required by law to charge interest when you don't pay your liability on time. Unlike penalties, we cannot reduce or remove interest due to reasonable cause. Interest accumulates daily, so the longer you wait to pay, the more interest we add to your account. Visit irs.gov/interest for more information.

Note: The interest amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total interest charges.

What you need to know— continued

Denial or revocation of United States Passport

On December 4, 2015, as part of the Fixing America's Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Congress enacted Section 7345 of the Internal Revenue Code, which requires the Internal Revenue Service to notify the State Department of taxpayers certified as owing seriously delinquent tax debt. The FAST Act generally prohibits the State Department from issuing or renewing a passport to a taxpayer with seriously delinquent tax debt. Seriously delinquent tax debt means an unpaid, legally enforceable federal tax debt of an individual totaling more than $62,000 that has been assessed and for which a Notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed and all administrative remedies under IRC Section 6320 have lapsed or been exhausted or a levy has been issued. If you are individually liable for tax debt (including penalties and interest) totaling more than $62,000 and you do not pay the amount you owe or make alternate arrangements to pay, we may notify the State Department that your tax debt is seriously delinquent. The State Department generally will not issue or renew a passport to you after we make this notification. If you currently have a valid passport, the State Department may revoke your passport or limit your ability to travel outside the United States. Additional information on passport certification is available at irs.gov/passports.

Payment options

Pay online, by phone, or with a mobile device. Visit IRS.gov/payments or the IRS2Go mobile app for all IRS payment options.

If you plan to mail a payment, consider the electronic options at IRS.gov/payments first. It's free to pay from a bank account (Direct Pay) or the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). You can also schedule payments and receive email notifications.

If you pay by check, money order, or cashier's check, make sure it's payable to the U.S. Treasury.

Can't pay it all now?

- Consider an offer in compromise at IRS.gov/OIC
- Request a temporary collection delay at IRS.gov/tempcollectiondelay

To view the amount you owe and your payment history, visit IRS.gov/account.

If we don't hear from you

Because you didn't meet the terms of the agreement, we'll terminate your installment agreement 30 days from the date of this notice if you don't take appropriate action immediately. Based on the tax lien that has arisen as a claim against all of your property, we may also file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) on your property at any time, if we haven't already done so. You have a right to appeal any proposed filing of the NFTL under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP).

If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. While NFTLs no longer appear on credit reports, they may still affect your ability to get credit if a potential creditor uses other resources, such as public records, to discover the NFTL.

In addition, as explained above, we have the right to levy (seize) your property if you don't pay your tax debt.

Failure to pay

(Internal Revenue Code Section 6651)

We assess a penalty for each month or part of a month you don't pay the tax you owe by the due date and afterward, up to 25% of the tax shown on the return.

Note: The penalty amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total Failure to Pay penalty charges.

Interest

(Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

We are required by law to charge interest when you don't pay your liability on time. Unlike penalties, we cannot reduce or remove interest due to reasonable cause. Interest accumulates daily, so the longer you wait to pay, the more interest we add to your account. Visit irs.gov/interest for more information.

Note: The interest amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total interest charges.

What you need to know— continued

Denial or revocation of United States Passport

On December 4, 2015, as part of the Fixing America's Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Congress enacted Section 7345 of the Internal Revenue Code, which requires the Internal Revenue Service to notify the State Department of taxpayers certified as owing seriously delinquent tax debt. The FAST Act generally prohibits the State Department from issuing or renewing a passport to a taxpayer with seriously delinquent tax debt. Seriously delinquent tax debt means an unpaid, legally enforceable federal tax debt of an individual totaling more than $62,000 that has been assessed and for which a Notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed and all administrative remedies under IRC Section 6320 have lapsed or been exhausted or a levy has been issued. If you are individually liable for tax debt (including penalties and interest) totaling more than $62,000 and you do not pay the amount you owe or make alternate arrangements to pay, we may notify the State Department that your tax debt is seriously delinquent. The State Department generally will not issue or renew a passport to you after we make this notification. If you currently have a valid passport, the State Department may revoke your passport or limit your ability to travel outside the United States. Additional information on passport certification is available at irs.gov/passports.

Payment options

Pay online, by phone, or with a mobile device. Visit IRS.gov/payments or the IRS2Go mobile app for all IRS payment options.

If you plan to mail a payment, consider the electronic options at IRS.gov/payments first. It's free to pay from a bank account (Direct Pay) or the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). You can also schedule payments and receive email notifications.

If you pay by check, money order, or cashier's check, make sure it's payable to the U.S. Treasury.

Can't pay it all now?

- Consider an offer in compromise at IRS.gov/OIC
- Request a temporary collection delay at IRS.gov/tempcollectiondelay

To view the amount you owe and your payment history, visit IRS.gov/account.

If we don't hear from you

Because you didn't meet the terms of the agreement, we'll terminate your installment agreement 30 days from the date of this notice if you don't take appropriate action immediately. ~~Based on the tax lien that has arisen as a claim against all of your~~ property, we may also file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) on your property at any time, if we haven't already done so. You have a right to appeal any proposed filing of the NFTL under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP).

If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. While NFTLs no longer appear on credit reports, they may still affect your ability to get credit if a potential creditor uses other resources, such as public records, to discover the NFTL.

In addition, as explained above, we have the right to levy (seize) your property if you don't pay your tax debt.

What you need to know— continuedDenial or revocation of United States Passport

On December 4, 2015, as part of the Fixing America's Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Congress enacted Section 7345 of the Internal Revenue Code, which requires the Internal Revenue Service to notify the State Department of taxpayers certified as owing seriously delinquent tax debt. The FAST Act generally prohibits the State Department from issuing or renewing a passport to a taxpayer with seriously delinquent tax debt. Seriously delinquent tax debt means an unpaid, legally enforceable federal tax debt of an individual totaling more than $62,000 that has been assessed and for which a Notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed and all administrative remedies under IRC Section 6320 have lapsed or been exhausted or a levy has been issued. If you are individually liable for tax debt (including penalties and interest) totaling more than $62,000 and you do not pay the amount you owe or make alternate arrangements to pay, we may notify the State Department that your tax debt is seriously delinquent. The State Department generally will not issue or renew a passport to you after we make this notification. If you currently have a valid passport, the State Department may revoke your passport or limit your ability to travel outside the United States. Additional information on passport certification is available at irs.gov/passports.

Payment options

Pay online, by phone, or with a mobile device. Visit IRS.gov/payments or the IRS2Go mobile app for all IRS payment options.

If you plan to mail a payment, consider the electronic options at IRS.gov/payments first. It's free to pay from a bank account (Direct Pay) or the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). You can also schedule payments and receive email notifications.

If you pay by check, money order, or cashier's check, make sure it's payable to the U.S. Treasury.

Can't pay it all now?

- Consider an offer in compromise at IRS.gov/OIC
- Request a temporary collection delay at IRS.gov/tempcollectiondelay

To view the amount you owe and your payment history, visit IRS.gov/account.

If we don't hear from you

Because you didn't meet the terms of the agreement, we'll terminate your installment agreement 30 days from the date of this notice if you don't take appropriate action immediately. Based on the tax lien that has arisen as a claim against all of your property, we may also file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) on your property at any time, if we haven't already done so. You have a right to appeal any proposed filing of the NFTL under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP).

If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. While NFTLs no longer appear on credit reports, they may still affect your ability to get credit if a potential creditor uses other resources, such as public records, to discover the NFTL.

In addition, as explained above, we have the right to levy (seize) your property if you don't pay your tax debt.

Interest

(Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

We are required by law to charge interest when you don't pay your liability on time. Unlike penalties, we cannot reduce or remove interest due to reasonable cause. Interest accumulates daily, so the longer you wait to pay, the more interest we add to your account. Visit irs.gov/interest for more information.

Note: The interest amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total interest charges.
